“Strengthening the Instructional Coaches Toolkit Part 1: Giving Effective Feedback that will be Received and Implemented”

Presenter: Dr. JoAnn Brown

When: Thursday, September 21, 2017 (9AM-3:30PM)
Where: North Atlanta High School
4111 Northside Parkway NW
Atlanta, GA 30327

TOPIC: This hands-on session will provide instructional coaches a deeper understanding of techniques and strategies for providing effective feedback on instructional strategies to teachers.

- Identify the four keys to observation and feedback
- Maintain a regular observation schedule for all assigned teachers
- Share tracking systems to know which teachers have been observed, what feedback they received, and whether the feedback has been effectively implemented
- Implement the six steps of effective feedback
- Identify the right action steps to improve student learning
- Discuss approaches to working with challenging teachers
- Hold teachers accountable for implementing feedback

The session will make use of video clips to provide specific examples of the six steps of effective feedback. This interactive session will provide time for participant questions and opportunities for practice.
