“Meeting the CCRPI Challenge”

Presenter: Bobby Smith
When: Tuesday, September 26, 2017 (9AM-3:30PM)
Where: Loudermilk Conference Center
        40 Courtland St. NE
        Atlanta, GA 30303

TOPIC: This workshop will provide school and district leaders a deeper understanding of the various components and indicators of the 2017 College and Career Ready Performance Index.

- The most recent changes in the CCRPI and the upcoming changes will be explained in the session.
- This hands-on session will provide participants an opportunity to analyze their CCRPI results for school improvement planning purposes.
- Participants will use several spreadsheet tools to perform analysis of their data to discover areas of need and the “low hanging fruit.”
- Participants will be shown how to use their 2017 Milestones data to project some parts of their next CCRPI score.
- Participants should bring fully-charged notebook computers with Excel. (Two or three participants from one school can share a computer.)
- Participants should bring print outs of their current CCRPI reports—all tabs including Flags and Climate Stars.
- Participants should have access to their latest Milestones data, including their “School Content Area Summary” report.
- Participants should bring a fully-charged laptop that has Excel. (Two or three participants from one school can share a computer.) Participants should also bring a print out of their 2017 CCRPI report (ALL tabs, about 10-12 pages). The Performance Flags section or tab should be printed in COLOR, but all other sections can be printed in black and white.
