“Response To Intervention: Why All Means All”
with Mike Mattos

RTI: Why All Means All

Mike Mattos, consultant with Solution Tree, will lead a one day workshop designed especially for educational leaders. The workshop will have these desired outcomes:

- To build a common knowledge and language for leading and supporting the implementation of RTI.
- To understand the “WHY” behind RTI and the relationship to “All Means ALL”.
- To develop an understanding of “Why” Common Formative Assessment development and use of student data by teachers is so important to having a successful RTI implementation in your school.
- To understand the role of leadership at the district and school levels and how your role impacts students.

AUDIENCE: Session is open to all educational leaders including district office leaders, principals, assistant principals, instructional coaches and teacher leaders.

PRESENTER

Mike Mattos is an internationally recognized author, presenter, and practitioner who specializes in uniting teachers, administrators, and support staff to transform schools by implementing response to intervention and professional learning communities. Mike co-created the RTI at Work™ model, which builds on the foundation of the PLC at Work™ process by using team structures and a focus on learning, collaboration, and results to drive successful outcomes.

Mike proudly served as a classroom teacher for a majority of his career in education. He taught social studies and mathematics at Moore Junior High School and Rancho Santa Margarita Intermediate School. He also served as the ASB activities director, coach, department chair, mentor teacher, and master teacher. He was selected Moore’s Teacher-of-the-Year, and received the Stanley L. Combs Outstanding Secondary Teacher and PTA Honorary Service Awards.

He is former principal of Marjorie Veeh Elementary School and Pioneer Middle School in Tustin, California. At both schools, Mike helped create powerful PLCs, improving learning for all students. In 2004, Marjorie Veeh, an elementary school with a large population of youth at risk, won the California Distinguished School and National Title I Achieving School awards.
For teams from PARTNER SCHOOLS, the 5th person is FREE
Tuition includes materials, breakfast, and lunches for all programs.